INTRODUCTION

The Report of Financial Transactions of Municipalities and Counties of California is published annually by the State Controller in conformity with the provisions of chapter 550, Statutes of 1911. The issue presented herewith covers, in most instances, the fiscal period from July 1, 1928, to June 30, 1929, and represents 275 incorporated cities and 57 counties (San Francisco being classified as a municipality). Since 1911, California has added 71 cities, many of them easily surpassing in civic enterprise, wealth and population the older, well established communities. On the other hand, regardless of age, some have almost ceased to function: Kennett, Lawndale and San Joaquin do not assess property or collect property taxes, and the annual report to this office is rendered through the courtesy of some interested resident.

For fifteen years the tabulations in this report have remained practically unchanged in the method of presentation. During those fifteen years radical changes have been made in accounting procedure, and, had the Controller endeavored annually to keep pace with these changes, the result would have been an assemblage of reports incomparable to any worth-while degree. By means of statements rendered by the county auditors and city auditors or clerks, the Controller has shown the actual receipt and expenditure of cash—a figure understandable to those not versed in the intricacies of accounting, yet portraying the financial condition of any government if surveyed over a period of years. There is no doubt but that changes would be beneficial—a segregation of revenue from receipts should be shown, a statement containing those charges which are a direct cost of government would be valuable for per capita comparisons, and a method of segregating payments for interest and redemption of bonds from the initial outlay would eliminate a duplication of costs to the taxpayer. However, any alterations would require an educational campaign on the part of public officials and should be handled in such a manner that the value of the reports presented to date would not be nullified—an effort particularly desirable since the principles of governmental accounting will undoubtedly be subject to change in the future as in the past.

The current year is marked by no surprising difference in the upward trend of collections and disbursements in all three forms of government. Approximately 42 per cent of the receipts for the year is contributed by corporations. The property tax represents 34 per cent of the county receipts, and 50 per cent of the municipal receipts. The largest single item of expenditure shown by the counties for the present year, as in the past, is for education, and represents 37 per cent of the total. For municipalities, the largest single item is for highways, and is 17 per cent of the total.

It is gratifying to note that during the past year the rate of increase in the bonded debt for each form of government has slackened considerably, which would indicate that the public has assumed a discriminating manner in connection with bond issues. Public credit, in private, should be a matter of intelligent caution and consideration, and should be used only in instances where the undertaking involved is imperative and beyond the limit of the direct tax rate. Occasional in the bond analysis a comparatively small issue is noted—one that presumably could have been met by direct taxation. The taxpayer in such cases should know that the dollar voted for a bond becomes his by the time of redemption.

Since 1928 the municipal bond debt has increased $12,899,471.18, although an actual increase of bonds heretofore unlisted amounted to $36,978,800. Act 6224, section 5, of the General Laws of California states that the bonded debt of any municipality must not exceed 1 per cent of the nonoperative assessed valuation. The cities have each kept far beneath the limit set by law.

ASSESSED VALUATION OF PROPERTY

Year	County	Municipal
1912	$1,963,314,804 00	$1,657,110,125 80
1915	2,185,563,068 00	2,883,379,919 80
1920	3,199,238,548 00	2,263,114,429 80
1925	5,061,191,479 00	4,098,381,271 80
1926	5,264,401,432 00	4,331,836,477 80
1927	5,681,460,432 00	4,578,446,521 80
1928	5,972,987,394 00	5,014,997,771 80
1929	7,358,823,817 00	5,925,501,125 80

The increase in the assessment figures shown above is the largest since the first published report. During the past year the total county assessed valuation has increased 23 per cent, as compared with 5 per cent increase during the preceding year. The increase for municipalities was 18 per cent—just double the percentage of the preceding year. This increase is largely due to the 100 per cent assessment of improvements, pursuant to the constitutional amendment adopted in 1928. Used as a basis for comparison the county real estate and improvement valuations, which have remained unchanged as to manner of assessment, increase for the year ending June 30, 1928, was 4.9 per cent, and for the current year 6.3 per cent. Similar comparison for municipalities can not be made since property segregations are not available.

POPULATION

The Controller this year has made no population estimates for the reason that the change in the assessed valuation as explained above has increased nonoperative totals to such an extent that estimates could not be made without a separate classification of taxable property in each municipality.

The estimated populations, according to city clerks as shown in the last table, total 4,975,000. Assuming that the entire population of the state is 5,550,000, the rural population would be approximately 5 per cent. However, an examination of the estimates presented has convinced the Controller that in many instances they are excessive, and the rural population should be at least 15 per cent. In 1911, the estimate of population outside incorporated cities was 30 per cent. While the decrease since that time seems excessive, a study of the recent reports of the federal government proves that this condition is general throughout the United States.
